Decarbonizing the Electric Grid: A Climate Transition Investment Framework

By: Calvert Research and Management | July 18, 2024

Content adapted from a white paper authored by Calvert Research and Management's Jonathan Prager (Executive Director, Research), Henry Mason (Vice President, Research) and Anuj Goyal (Vice President, Research).

"Calvert sees abundant investment opportunities and societal benefits in directly financing the transition to a low-carbon economy by prudently allocating capital where it is needed most: high-emitting sectors that have the capacity and willingness to decarbonize."

Regenerative Agriculture - A Rising Solution

By: Imani Camp | May 21, 2024

When Calvert assesses how biodiversity may impact the food production ecosystem, we like to consider how Food and Agricultural Products companies are implementing solutions to mitigate the effects of issues such as land degradation soil erosion and soil health. Regenerative agriculture is a practice Calvert believes can solve the growing global food supply issue and improve the operational and financial performance of companies.

How Calvert Helped Create the Barron's Most Sustainable Companies List

By: Calvert Research and Management | March 7, 2024

This marked the seventh year in a row that Calvert scored the 1,000 largest U.S. publicly traded companies across 230 environmental, social, and governance (ESG) performance indicators for Barron's annual list of the "100 Most Sustainable U.S. Companies." The top 100 firms included in Barron's achieved the highest scores across those ESG metrics, ranging from workplace diversity to greenhouse-gas emissions. Here's a brief look at how we did so.

Property Insurance: The Canary in the Coal Mine for Physical Climate Risk

By: Pietro Marchesano | February 15, 2024

The urgent need to reduce emissions has recently drawn a high level of scrutiny and interest from the financial services sector. Although physical climate risk is often mentioned less than transition risk, its effects will become increasingly evident over time. The insurance industry offers an important perspective on the evolving materiality of physical risk and ways to address it.
