Why Policy Choice Matters for Socioeconomic Mobility in Emerging Markets

By: Marshall L. Stocker, Ph.D., CFA |

November 2, 2021

Boston - Intergenerational mobility has long been considered critical for economic growth in emerging markets (EM) economies, given its association with higher per capita GDP and lower poverty rates. As EM investors, we believe that a better understanding of mobility can yield important insights into the areas of reform that support improved long-term growth and social outcomes.

What to Make of Recent Volatility in the Muni Market?

By: Evan Rourke, CFA | October 20, 2021

New York - If you were paying attention to the municipal bond market in 2021, you may have observed a drop in yields (and a corresponding rally in prices) at the end of the second quarter that continued into the third quarter. Depending on maturity, Treasury yields reached quarterly lows on either August 3 or 4. From there yields rose again modestly, then picked up momentum following the Federal Open Market Committee meeting in September.
