Engagement Aimed at Advancing Climate Change Mitigation

September 13, 2021

Washington - Lessons learned from the COVID-19 pandemic starkly brought home the message that no person — no country or corporation — is an island. The pandemic's reach demonstrates that companies can no longer avoid strategic planning and action on global issues, climate change being an important example.

IMF gives developing countries a substantial boost amid delta variant crises

August 25, 2021

Boston - The International Monetary Fund (IMF) made the largest allocation of Special Drawing Rights (SDRs) in its history — $650 billion — at the start of this week. According to the IMF, the allocation, which is an interest-bearing international reserve asset that can be exchanged for dollars or other major currencies with Central Banks, is a significant shot in the arm in the ongoing fight to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Bullish and Bearish COVID Developments: CDC Advisors Say the Delta Surge Is Over

September 24, 2021

Boston - According to a new analysis by a consortium of researchers advising the CDC, the Delta surge will likely decline steadily now through next spring — without a significant bump up in the winter. As a result, we expect this will be our last weekly update on health policy responses and other COVID developments.
