Worries over a More Hawkish Fed and Regulatory Tightening in China Spark 3Q EM losses

By: Emerging Markets Team | October 12, 2021

Boston - Emerging markets (EM) debt followed a very strong second quarter, with a general sell-off during the third quarter, albeit with differentiation across segments. Concerns about the Delta variant of COVID-19, regulatory crackdowns in China and a more hawkish U.S. Federal Reserve than anticipated all contributed to weigh on investor sentiment.

Examining the Impact of China's New Regulatory Regime

By: Kunjai Gala | October 14, 2021

London - Since November 2020, Chinese authorities have aggressively tightened regulations across a number of sectors, including the internet, health care, education, gaming, gambling and crypto currencies — ostensibly in pursuit of its social and political goal of "common prosperity." Although tighter regulation was clearly on the horizon, investors and industry officials were caught off guard by the strictness of the new rules and speed with which they took place.

World Bank Ends "Doing Business" Report in Wake of Scandal

By: Emerging Markets Team | October 4, 2021

Boston - On September 16, the World Bank discontinued its flagship "Doing Business" report, following an external review alleging that senior World Bank officials applied direct and indirect pressure to manipulate the scores for China, Saudi Arabia, UAE and Azerbaijan.

Evergrande's Troubles Predate China's Crackdown on Capitalism

By: Emerging Markets Team | September 22, 2021

Boston - We have followed developments related to Chinese property developer Evergrande since fall 2020, even more closely since April. With the further deterioration in prices for Evergrande's outstanding securities and the increasing likelihood that the company could declare bankruptcy and default on debt soon, here's an update on what we think.

IMF gives developing countries a substantial boost amid delta variant crises

By: Emerging Markets Team | August 25, 2021

Boston - The International Monetary Fund (IMF) made the largest allocation of Special Drawing Rights (SDRs) in its history —$650 billion — at the start of this week. According to the IMF, the allocation, which is an interest-bearing international reserve asset that can be exchanged for dollars or other major currencies with Central Banks, is a significant shot in the arm in the ongoing fight to recover from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Serbia's new inclusion in index highlights benefits of investing outside indexes

By: Emerging Markets Team | August 19, 2021

For the Eaton Vance emerging markets team, Serbia represents a case study in the tremendous potential that we see in countries outside the major EM benchmarks for managers willing to devote the time, resources and expertise required for such investments. We believe it is useful to recap some of the milestones of Serbia's journey as a guide to investors seeking value in the sector.

South Africa's woes predate - and likely will long outlast - July's riots

By: Emerging Markets Team | August 9, 2021

Boston - South Africa saw significant unrest in July, when former President Jacob Zuma turned himself in for a prison sentence of 15 months for ignoring a summons to appear in court on corruption allegations. In the riots and looting that ensued, at least 330 people died and over 2,500 people were arrested. Economic damage is estimated in the billions of dollars, well over 1% of GDP.
