

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE OPENING BELL

June 04, 2019

Celebrating Our 50-Year Anniversary

On Tuesday, June 4, 2019, Kelly Williams, President and COO of Atlanta Capital Management Company, and Tom Faust, CEO of Eaton Vance Corp., rang the opening bell at the New York Stock Exchange. Joined by our clients and senior executives of both firms, the occasion honored Atlanta Capital's 50th Anniversary.

Prior to the bell ringing, clients and guests were invited to a breakfast located in the NYSE Board Room, and then watched from the trading room floor as Messrs. Faust and Williams opened the trading session. The morning concluded with speeches and toasts to reflect on Atlanta Capital's accomplishments and to express our continued gratitude for our client relationships.

