What to Make of Recent Volatility in the Muni Market?

October 20, 2021

New York - If you were paying attention to the municipal bond market in 2021, you may have observed a drop in yields (and a corresponding rally in prices) at the end of the second quarter that continued into the third quarter. Depending on maturity, Treasury yields reached quarterly lows on either August 3 or 4. From there yields rose again modestly, then picked up momentum following the Federal Open Market Committee meeting in September.

Calvert Signs 2021 Global Investor Statement

October 15, 2021

Washington - The 2021 Global Investor Statement to Governments on the Climate Crisis calls on governments to implement meaningful policies to support investment in solutions to the climate crisis. It lays out a five-point plan designed to reduce global net carbon dioxide emissions by 45 percent from 2010 levels by 2030, a key step to reaching net-zero emissions by 2050 or sooner. The statement has been signed by 587 investors representing over $46 trillion in assets and collectively represent 40 percent of the world's assets under management. Released ahead of the United Nations Climate Change Conference in Glasgow in November 2021 (COP26), the statement seeks to enhance investor voices to encourage governments to develop the essential policy framework for investors to manage climate risk.
