Why Policy Choice Matters for Socioeconomic Mobility in Emerging Markets

By: Marshall L. Stocker, Ph.D., CFA |

November 2, 2021

Boston - Intergenerational mobility has long been considered critical for economic growth in emerging markets (EM) economies, given its association with higher per capita GDP and lower poverty rates. As EM investors, we believe that a better understanding of mobility can yield important insights into the areas of reform that support improved long-term growth and social outcomes.
