EATON VANCE INTERNATIONAL (IRELAND) FUNDS PLC (the Company) SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION DOCUMENT (SID)

This document provides supplementary information related to your investment in one or more of the sub-funds of the Company and should be read in conjunction with the Key Investor Information Document (“KIID”) and the Company’s prospectus and supplements to the prospectus in respect of each sub-fund.

What are the Key Investor Information Documents (KIIDs) and Supplementary Information Document (SID)?

The KIIDs and SID are essential documents available to all investors. The KIIDs contain details of the investment objectives, charges and risks of each of the sub funds of the Company. The KIID is aimed at helping you assess whether a particular fund meets your needs. It comes in a standardised format. The purpose of the SID is to provide investors with information on our complaint handling arrangements, the availability of compensation schemes and any right to cancel an investment if you change your mind. Full details of the Company and its sub-funds are set out in the Company’s prospectus and supplements to the prospectus in respect of each sub-fund.

When considering an investment in any of our funds, you should read the KIID and SID carefully so that you understand what you are buying, review the prospectus (together with its supplements) if you wish to review full details of the Company and take advice if you are unclear about the contents. You should keep them safe for future reference. To make sure you have the most up-to-date version of the relevant KIID(s), SID and prospectus, visit our website http://international.eatonvance.com or contact us at 020 3207 1900 or email us at internationalenquiries@eatonvance.com.

Where do I go if further advice is required?

How should I use the KIID and SID?

These documents aim to give you a summary of the charges and risks associated with the sub-funds.
