Stars Align for EM Debt in 2023, Following a Stellar 4Q22

By: Emerging Markets Debt | January 25, 2023

Boston - Emerging markets (EM) debt rebounded sharply in the fourth quarter of 2022, capping a challenging year on a positive note. The surge was driven by improvements in the macro backdrop including expectations that the U.S. Federal Reserve is nearing the end of its tightening cycle and encouraging developments in China, which dramatically reversed its zero-COVID policy. Attractive valuations in the sector also drew investors.

Reflections on 2022 and Research Retreat Highlights

By: Emerging Markets Debt | January 13, 2023

Boston - As we begin 2023, the Emerging Markets Debt team leadership wishes to thank you — our investors and partners in the investment community. Last year was a challenging one for almost all global asset classes, including EM debt, which contended with a "perfect storm" of rising rates, stressed fiscal policies and risk-off markets. Your continuing support is especially appreciated in that kind of environment.

Active Engagement: Good for Both Investors and Issuers in Distressed EM Debt

By: Federico Sequeda, CFA | December 21, 2022

Boston - Emerging markets (EM) debt has faced a challenging year in 2022, along with almost all other fixed income sectors. EM countries with significant problems typically garner the most headlines, especially if their debt falls into "distressed" status — usually defined as trading at a spread of 1,000 basis points or more.

Signals Indicate an Enticing Entry Point for EM Debt

KEY POINTS

- 1 Along with the improving macro, fundamental and technical picture, compelling valuations point to a market reset for EM debt.
- 2 We see a number of attractive opportunities across the universe, particularly in local interest rates and also in corporate spreads.
- 3 Sentiment swings may affect EM assets in 2023, although market pessimism appears to have peaked.

Brazil Narrowly Elected Lula: What's Next?

By: Emerging Markets Debt | November 16, 2022

Boston - Elections in Brazil are over, with Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva, known as "Lula," emerging the victor by a narrow margin — in line with poll predictions and the EMD team's expectations. After a few days of uncertainty, the succession process appears to be on track, with Bolsonaro giving a short speech where he did not technically concede, but said he would respect the transition of power.

Slowing Global Recovery, Geopolitical Concerns Top Worries at IMF Fall Conference

By: Emerging Markets Debt | November 15, 2022

Boston - The October fall meeting of the IMF in Washington, D.C. revealed a bleaker global economic outlook than in April, underscoring the protracted strains of global inflation and the Russia-Ukraine War. Multi-decades high inflation, elevated debt, rising food and energy security risks, persisting supply-chain and trade disruptions, tightening financial conditions, and growing capital flow and exchange rate volatility, are posing increased fragmentation risks.
