Why Policy Choice Matters for Socioeconomic Mobility in Emerging Markets

By: Marshall L. Stocker, Ph.D., CFA |

November 2, 2021

Boston - Intergenerational mobility has long been considered critical for economic growth in emerging markets (EM) economies, given its association with higher per capita GDP and lower poverty rates. As EM investors, we believe that a better understanding of mobility can yield important insights into the areas of reform that support improved long-term growth and social outcomes.

Engagement Aimed at Advancing Climate Change Mitigation

By: John Wilson | & William Hsu | September 13, 2021

Washington - Lessons learned from the COVID-19 pandemic starkly brought home the message that no person — or country or corporation — is an island. The pandemic's reach demonstrates that companies can no longer avoid strategic planning and action on global issues, climate change being an important example.
