2024 Outlook: High Yield Bonds

By: Stephen C. Concannon, CFA, Will

Reardon | December 6, 2023

Higher Volatility in 2024 May Present Attractive Entry Points for High Yield Bonds

KEY POINTS

 As global central banks near the end of a historical cycle of tightening monetary policy, we believe a moderate recession is a more probable outcome in 2024.
 Increasing dispersion in valuations across rating segments, sectors and individual issuers will continue to provide opportunity and the ability to capture attractive entry points.

3. We have maintained our cautious positioning and continue to prefer defensive sectors that trade wide of historical norms, such as health care, given the sector's historically defensive characteristics.

Where's the Trickle Down? Gender Diversity in Corporate Pipeline Lags the Boardroom

By: Yijia Chen, CFA | March 15, 2024

As March is Women's History Month, it's timely that we review women's headway moving up the corporate ranks and the progress of gender diversity initiatives worldwide.

EM EQUITIES | EMERGING MARKETS | EQUITIES | HIGH CONVICTION ACTIVE Brazilian Economy Boosted by Reasonable Government Legislations and Tight Monetary Policy

By: Paul Psaila | February 5, 2024

KEY POINTS

 A year into President Lula's term, the political and economic situation in Brazil is better than many had expected.
 The economy will likely grow more than expected as interest rates continue to fall.
 We believe Brazil remains cheap compared to other emerging markets with lower inflation and rates acting as a tailwind for growth.

Artificial Intelligence from a Value Perspective: Enabling the Evolution of Compute Power

By: Aaron Dunn, CFA | & Bradley Galko, CFA | April 24, 2024

KEY POINTS

- 1. Al opportunity expands beyond the growth darlings that were the immediate and primary beneficiaries over the past year.
- 2. Utilities experienced the largest historical relative underperformance to the broader market in 2023; in our view, the reward relative to risk is now quite compelling for a sector that is experiencing an inflection in fundamentals.

3. We believe renewables, such as solar and wind, combined with battery storage, will play an increasing role in behind-the-meter power solutions.

Election Cycle is Very Likely to Impact Stocks

By: Aaron Dunn, CFA | & Bradley Galko, CFA | February 14, 2024

KEY POINTS

1. During presidential election years over most of the last century, on average both U.S. large- and small-cap value have outperformed their growth peers.

- 2. Value vs. Growth's dominance in election years also correlates with U.S. gross domestic product (GDP) growth and detraction.
- 3. Incumbent candidates and parties keen to win reelection seek to make voters feel financially secure when heading to the polls.

2024 Outlook: Value Equity

By: Aaron Dunn, CFA | & Bradley Galko, CFA | December 11, 2023

Normalization of Supply Chains May Create Opportunity for Value Investors

KEY POINTS

1. While inventory destocking has been deep and painful, we believe the slate is now clean for companies in sectors that have been beaten down due to this phenomenon. We also continue to closely watch what we term the GLP-1 (or weight-loss drug) reversion trade — our assumption being that consumer goods companies will still have a place when the dust settles.

We're focusing on company-specific opportunities within the industrials, basic materials, semiconductors, consumer and utilities sectors.
 We believe rates will be higher for longer, and a balanced approach among equity allocations will be key in this regime where risk has a price.
