Stars Align for EM Debt in 2023, Following a Stellar 4Q22

January 25, 2023

Boston - Emerging markets (EM) debt rebounded sharply in the fourth quarter of 2022, capping a challenging year on a positive note. The surge was driven by improvements in the macro backdrop including expectations that the U.S. Federal Reserve is nearing the end of its tightening cycle and encouraging developments in China, which dramatically reversed its zero-COVID policy. Attractive valuations in the sector also drew investors.

KEY POINTS

1. Most infrastructure companies have some form of inflation protection embedded into their contract structure.

3. We have started to move toward a more defensively positioned portfolio, lowering exposures to energy and certain aspects of transportation (for example, freight), while increasing investments in utilities and communications.

2. Unprecedented levels of investment and innovation in climate startups in recent years has led to a deep and maturing pipeline of highly attractive, decarbonization focused growth-stage companies.
