A majority of the Directors are unaffiliated with Eaton Vance, and no Director is affiliated with Renaissance Philanthropic Solutions Group (Administrator). Vacancies on the Board of Directors are filled by the remaining Directors. A majority of the Directors who are not affiliated with Eaton Vance must concur with the appointment of any new unaffiliated Director. Donors and income beneficiaries do not have voting rights or the right to participate in the selection of Directors. In accordance with federal tax law applicable to pooled income funds, the Directors are not eligible to be Donors or income beneficiaries of the Legacy Income Trusts.

Officers. In addition to delegating certain functions to Eaton Vance, the Trustee, the Administrator and the Placement Agent, the Board of Directors has appointed certain officers to take actions on behalf of the Gift Trust and related entities. The officers of the Gift Trust and related entities, each of whom is an officer of Eaton Vance or the Placement Agent, are as follows: Lawrence L. Fahey, President; Meghan Moses, Chief Philanthropy Officer, Vice President; Stephanie Rosander, Secretary; Michelle Rousseau, Assistant Secretary; Des Gallacher, Vice President; A. John Murphy, Vice President; James Kirchner, Treasurer; and Michael Shattuck, Assistant Treasurer.

Limitation of Liability. The Directors will not have liability under the Declarations of Trust of the Gift Trust or Legacy Income Trusts for their actions or omissions, nor for actions or omissions of any of their officers, employees or agents to whom administrative or investment authority may be delegated, except as may be caused by the Directors' bad faith or reckless indifference in the performance of their duties. Each of the Gift Trust or Legacy Income Trusts maintain insurance policies to protect such entities, the Board of Directors and the officers.

The Gift Trust or Legacy Income Trusts will indemnify the Directors against any liability to the fullest extent allowed by applicable law. Each of such entities may also indemnify and hold harmless certain service providers, their agents and nominees from any claims, losses, liabilities or expenses (including reasonable counsel fees and expenses), except as may arise from bad faith or reckless indifference in the performance of their duties. The Trustee does not have liability for its actions or omissions, except to the extent that such actions or inactions constitute bad faith or reckless indifference in the performance of its duties.

U.S. Charitable Gift Trust® (Gift Trust) is a tax-exempt public charity offering donor-advised funds. All activities of the Gift Trust and the U.S. Legacy Income Trusts (Legacy Income Trusts) and the participation of Donors and income beneficiaries in the Legacy Income Trusts are subject to the requirements of state and federal law, the terms and conditions of the applicable Declaration of Trust, the current information statement and/or gifting booklet and the completed forms submitted by each Donor. The Board of Directors of the Gift Trust (Board of Directors) reserves the right to modify the program of the Gift Trust and the Legacy Income Trusts at any time, subject to the provisions of the applicable Declaration of Trust and state and federal law. Any contribution to the Gift Trust or a Legacy Income Trust, once accepted by Eaton Vance Trust Company (Trustee), represents an irrevocable commitment. Contributions cannot be rescinded or changed, and are subject to the exclusive legal control of the Gift Trust, the Trustee and the Board of Directors. Donors to the Legacy Income Trusts should be motivated by charitable intent. As charitable giving vehicles, the Legacy Income Trusts should not be treated as, and are not designed to compete with, investments made for private gain. An intention to benefit the Gift Trust and one or more qualified charitable organizations eligible for support by the Gift Trust should be a significant part of the decision to contribute. The tax consequences of contributing to a Legacy Income Trust will vary based on individual circumstances. Prospective Donors should consult their own tax advisors. Distributions to Legacy Income Trust income beneficiaries are not guaranteed by any party, and are subject to investment risk. In considering potential changes in the distribution rates of the Legacy Income Trusts, the Trustee will assess their long-term earnings potential and seek to balance the interests of current and future income beneficiaries and the charitable remainder interests. Neither the Gift Trust nor the Legacy Income Trusts has been registered under federal securities laws, pursuant to available exemptions. Neither of the Gift Trust nor the Legacy Income Trusts is guaranteed or insured by the United States or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

Eaton Vance Distributors, Inc. (Placement Agent) is a paid solicitor of the Gift Trust and the Legacy Income Trusts, receiving compensation as described in the applicable information statement or gifting booklet.

This site and the materials herein are directed only to certain types of contributors and to persons in the United States where the Gift Trust and Legacy Income Trusts are authorized for distribution.

The foregoing discussion applies to the currently offered Legacy Income Trusts and the predecessor Legacy Income Trusts established by the Gift Trust in 2019, which ceased accepting new contributions on January 1, 2022. This discussion also applies to the pooled income funds established by the Gift Trust prior to the Legacy Income Trusts, which are also no longer accepting new contributions.

Prior to March 1, 2021, Eaton Vance, the Trustee and the Placement Agent were wholly-owned subsidiaries of Eaton Vance Corp. (EVC). On March 1, 2021, Morgan Stanley acquired EVC and, as a result, Eaton Vance, the Trustee and the Placement Agent became indirect, wholly-owned subsidiaries of Morgan Stanley. Morgan Stanley is a global financial services firm providing a wide range of investment banking, securities, wealth management and investment management services.
