Investing with Calvert for alpha and broad impact

Calvert invests across the global capital markets seeking long-term value creation and positive global impact based on three key areas:

Competitive performance through integration of financially material ESG factors with traditional fundamental analysis, differentiated research to capture alpha from a deep understanding of ESG issues backed by data to cover the broadest possible opportunity set, and active engagement with management to promote sustainable business practices that drive shareholder value and foster lasting impact.

The US SIF, ESG indexes and Responsible Investing

July 31, 2020

Washington - The US SIF Foundation this week released its latest report, "The Rise of ESG in Passive Investments," which explores the growth of passive environmental, social and governance (ESG) investing and the debate on the effectiveness of passive versus active ESG mutual funds. Calvert Research and Management was among the asset managers that contributed to the report, which also drew on publicly available data and insights from the US SIF Foundation research advisory committee.
