Sourcing opportunities in a relatively fully valued high-yield bond market

By: Kelley Baccei Gerrity, Will Reardon | August 24, 2021

London - There is a lot to like about the global high-yield market. The global developed economy is on a resurgent trajectory, corporate fundamentals have improved dramatically and central bank policy remains accommodative. That said, there are also critical factors that could weigh on the market: tight average valuations, the changing impulse of liquidity, the threat of persistent inflation, and COVID variant uncertainty.

"The outlook for the high-yield market remains positive. That said, a very selective investment approach is required in order to capture remaining spread-tightening opportunities."

Engagement Aimed at Advancing Climate Change Mitigation

By: John Wilson, William Hsu |

September 13, 2021

Washington - Lessons learned from the COVID-19 pandemic starkly brought home the message that no person — or country or corporation — is an island. The pandemic's reach demonstrates that companies can no longer avoid strategic planning and action on global issues, climate change being an important example.

Bullish and Bearish COVID Developments: CDC Advisors Say the Delta Surge Is Over

By: Marshall L. Stocker, Ph.D., CFA |

September 24, 2021

Boston - According to a new analysis by a consortium of researchers advising the CDC, the Delta surge will likely decline steadily now through next spring — without a significant bump up in the winter. As a result, we expect this will be our last weekly update on health policy responses and other COVID developments.
