Mighty midcaps may be an overlooked portion of the US equity market

Boston - Since hitting its low point for the year on March 23, the Russell Midcap Index has rallied 44.0% through May 31, placing it 6.0% ahead of the Russell 2000 Index and 4.5% ahead of the Russell 2000 Index. Despite delivering historically compelling absolute and risk-adjusted returns versus their large-cap and small-cap counterparts, we find that midcaps are an often-neglected segment of the US equity market.
