Dividends avoid crisis in 2020 to face favorable dynamics in 2021

Boston - While 2020 was a year of crisis for public health and the global economy it seemed to have only a short-term impact on financial markets. S&P 500 Index dividends, which were prematurely dismissed last March, rose 0.7% for 2020, up from the previous record in 2019.¹ This compares to initial expectations that mont for S&P 500 dividends to decrease by 28%.²
